

Any footnotes are shown at the bottom of each page
For full version of abbreviations click 'Abbreviations' on FB's website

BENNION ON STATUTORY INTERPRETATION

5th edition, LexisNexis 2008

Summary of Parts

Division One - Interpreter, Instrument and Enactment

- Part I - The Interpreter
- Part II - The Instrument to be Interpreted: Acts of Parliament
- Part III - The Instrument to be Interpreted: Subordinate Legislation
- Part IV - Commencement, Amendment and Repeal of Acts
- Part V - Extent and Application of Acts
- Part VI - The Enactment and the Facts

Division Two - The Legal Meaning of an Enactment

- Part VII - Grammatical and Strained Constructions
- Part VIII - Legislative Intention
- Part IX - Filling in the Textual Detail
- Part X - Interpretative Criteria and Interpretative Factors

Division Three - Rules of Construction

- Part XI - Rules of Construction (General)
- Part XII - Rules of Construction Laid Down by Statute
- Part XIII - The Informed Interpretation Rule (General)
- Part XIV - The Informed Interpretation Rule (Legislative History)
- Part XV - The Functional Construction Rule

Division Four - Interpretative Principles Derived from Legal Policy

- Part XVI - Interpretative Principles (General)
- Part XVII - Principle against doubtful penalisation

Division Five - Interpretative Presumptions Based on the Nature of Legislation

- Part XVIII - Interpretative Presumptions (General)
- Part XIX - The Mischief and its Remedy
- Part XX - Purposive Construction
- Part XXI - Construction Against 'Absurdity'
- Part XXII - Construction Against Evasion
- Part XXIII - Application of Ancillary Rules of Law
- Part XXIV - Application of Ancillary Legal Maxims

Division Six - Linguistic Canons of Construction

- Part XXV - Linguistic Canons of Construction: General
- Part XXVI - Linguistic Canons of Construction: Use of Deductive Reasoning
- Part XXVII - Linguistic Canons of Construction: Interpretation of Particular Words and Phrases
- Part XXVIII - Linguistic Canons of Construction: Elaboration of Meaning of Words and Phrases

Division Seven - Europe

- Part XXIX - Community law and the European Court
- Part XXX - Human Rights Act 1998